DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class of Nineteen Hundred and Sixty-four, dedicate this yearbook to the future seniors who will some day follow our steps through the doors of Ypsilanti High School as graduates. As we begin our walk on the future paths of life, we leave this book as a record of the goals and achievements we have made. In dedicating this yearbook to you, we sincerely hope that you will uphold the honor of our school and strive to maintain the high standards set by the first graduating class and every class since then.

IN THE DARK ROOM WITH STUDENT LIFE

Students enjoyed themselves at the J-Hop.

The sophomore float won first prize.

Miss 'I' fights for a chair.

Hold on....

Gary and his noontime harem.

So THIS is honor (?) study hall.

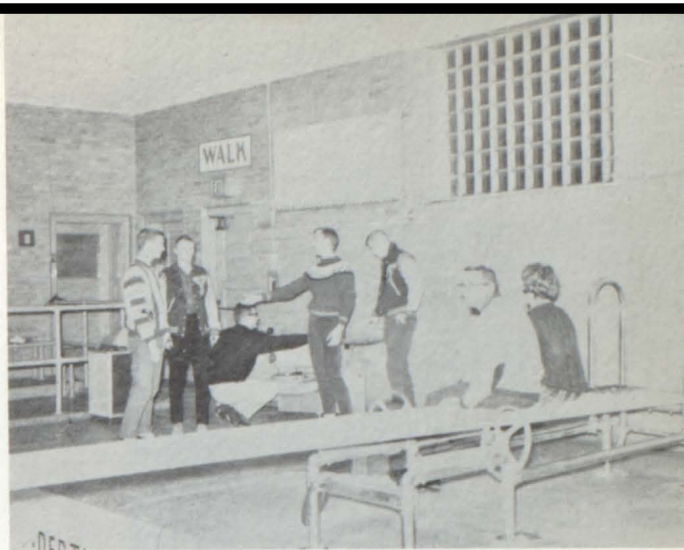

Don't look TOO hard, Ardis.

"You wouldn't mind walking to Ann Arbor, would ya?"

"Meanwhile, back in the poolroom!"

The "Brown-Baggers" in action.

"Guess who?"

The juniors worked hard on their float, but....

Coach Lee shows 'em how it's done.

...and Margaret tells another story.

Students gave lots of pep and spirit to the BRAVES.

Many good times were spent here.

The Queen and her court.

"1-2-3-4!"

"To kill a cardinal."

Third prize was won by the French Club.

School is such a bore.

Lil' Steve must have been eating his Wheaties!

Noon hour is the best time of the day, right, Sid?

Latin Club members were put to work during the Home-coming parade.

Those five minutes between classes can be more fun!

THE SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class, being of sound mind and body, superior intelligence, and excellent reasoning, and possessing a record of accomplishments, hereby will and bequeath these possessions:

TO THE SCHOOL: Our chewing-gummed desks with the written remains of bygone loves, the memory of the wrestling victories, and all the fun and laughter we've had in the past three years.

TO THE FACULTY: Stacks of late assignments, overdue book reports, impatient moments, and above all, a hearty thanks.

TO THE JUNIOR CLASS: Our senior dignity which we have worn with so much grace, the privilege of putting out next year's yearbook, and the delight of not having a minute to spare.

TO THE SOPHOMORE CLASS: The anticipation of directing the sophomores to their classes that first week of school, two more years of hard labor, and our corps of loving teachers.

We, the members of the Senior Class, will the following exceptional talents and possessions:

I, Clark Lennert, will my ability to be completely insane at all times to Tom Stobie. (Do it!)

I, Charles R. Lucas, will my thirty year old worn and torn trig book to George.

I, Tom Essex, will to Mr. Seidler another year like the one he had with me in 205 study hall.

I, Diane Fisher, will my cadaver to the electronics department in order that they may study impulses.

I, Eddie Mayberry, will Nancy Baker's Thunderbird to James Brakke.

I, Larry Brose, leave to Clarence Pope, a string of broken bats and no hits.

We, the Varsity Club of YHS, will to our junior and sophomore members our treasury, which will be completely "shot" by June 8, 1964.

I, Sandra Patton, will Mrs. Distler all my many smiles and party ideas.

I, Doug Mull, will the hours of 8:15 - 3:30 to any underclassman who wishes to take them from me.

I, Dennis R. Thumm, will Ypsilanti High School more and better school spirit.

I, Stuart Richards, will my size 12 shoes to Stan Albertson.

I, Vern Usher, will my ability to pass to Terry Towler.

I, George Ridenour, will to Lise Jensen, the clothes I used to invade New York City.

I, Sally Barnum, will to Joan Bishop my old sheet music, so that she won't have to borrow any next year.

I, Arlene Dumpierres, will my greatly used art smock to Paula Miller.

We, Richard Allison, Tom Ardis, Bruce Dobbs, and Clark Lennert, will our Beatle wigs to any underclassmen that have enough nerve to make fools of themselves.

I, Ann Hall, will my most wonderful voice and Spanish speaking ability to Juanita Easley.

I, Jon Ichesco, will Rocky Doe a ride in a Plymouth.

I, Don Stout, will my fabulous (?) hook shot (and all the luck that goes with it) to Bill Falk, with the hope he'll start shooting more.

I, "Useless" Robinson, will my tennis shoes to Paul-ette Dozier, for G.A.C. practice. (I hope you don't put your feet in the holes.)

We, Pam Steele and Lynne Vorce, will Bill Abbey a locker by himself next year.

I, Ross Thayer, will my good looks and superior intelligence to Ken Hays.

We, the chemistry classes, will those horrible fumes, and "bang up" experiments to next year's chemists.

I, Sandy Van Riper, will the magic moment of being crowned Homecoming Queen to next year's lucky senior.

I, Bill Clark, will Dick Deck a portable ladder so that he can climb out of the swimming pool after practice.

I, Steven Ash, will my ability to flood the shower room to all of the non-swimmers of the baseball team.

We, the Senior Class of 1964, will all our mellow parties to any underclassmen who can endure the best.

I, Pam Bohn, will honor study hall to any juniors who can keep up the tradition that the seniors have set of messing around and usually accomplishing nothing.

I, Pat Horne, will to Val Fuller and Ronnie Brose the good fortune of our mellow Senior G.A.C. teams.

I, Tina Bjornstad, will a bottle of weed killer to any future member of Miss Neville's English classes.

I, Margaret Dawson, will to Mr. Roberts and Mr. Sparrow another senior problem like me.

I, Cheryl Wilcox, will the use of my house for noon-time parties, and other necessary occasions to future seniors.

I, Jim Freer, will the front seat by the window in Study 205 to stare out of, to any unfortunate senior, who decides to have two study halls.

We, Robert Slater and Eldora Roberson, will to Cleopatra a gallon of milk.

In witness, thereof, we, the class of 1964, do hereby appoint Mr. Charles Roberts executor of this, Our Last Will and Testament, to carry out the above in the manner all fitting and proper. We do hereby affix our signatures and seal on this the twelfth day of June, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and sixty-four.

I, Brenda Barnickel, will my ability to say all the wrong things at the right time to Peggy Daniel and Sherrie Yates.

I, Linda Branim, will my corridor pass to Willow Run to any junior girl who needs one.

I, Gwytha Cooper, will my "principal" position in band to Beverly Brixey.

I, Fred Zenith, will to Kathie Bassett a pair of binoculars so she can find me at track meets.

I, John Novak, will my many excuses to Rocky Doe. (He'll need them next year.)

I, Sandee Loper, will my Babe Ruth baseball bat for the sophomore girls to fight off all the aggressive boys with.

I, Mike Milford, leave my square toes to Frazee "the toe" Byrd.

I, Evelyn Cole, will my ability to talk at the wrong time in the wrong places to Linda Block.

I, Everette Carlson, will my ability in woodshop and mechanical drawing to Tom Short.

We, Mike Presler, Sam Avery, Don Bravold and Tom Essex, will our knowledge of Euchre playing to sophomore Cliff Avery. (He needs it!)

I, Sid Disbrow, will all my stage presence to all future actors.

I, John Lewis, will French Horn, No. 43 to "Cool, Ralph."

I, Almeda Clay, will all my respect for Ypsi High and its administration to the following graduating classes.

IN MEMORIAM

The Junior Class would like to dedicate this page to three of our class members who were killed in automobile accidents this past semester. Everyone was- and still is- shocked by this terrible tragedy. John Seleska, Diane Smith, and Bill Harden will always be remembered by our class, the school, and the whole community. To a few people they have merely become statistics; but to their many loved ones and friends, they are still here in spirit, although they, as living beings, are gone.

JUNIOR CLASS

This year's Junior Class was kept quite busy in making its many activities a winning success. In starting out the year, we were hosts to the sophomores at the annual Sophomore Reception. Towards the middle of the year, our goal was to raise money for our treasury, which we achieved by sponsoring a basketball game between the Harlem Astronauts and the faculty. The Senior Farewell brought this year to a close when we bid the seniors good-bye. Our class members participated in other activities such as the Junior Prom, and the building of the class float for the Homecoming parade. For us, this indeed was a busy year, but goals achieved can never be forgotten.

Are you really a Beatle?

Please pass all my English classes.

Doesn't she know by now it won't do any good?

I am Count Dracula. Welcome to Transylvania.

Today's sermon is . . . . .

Miss O'Connor's busy teaching her English.

No, I do not see Venus!

Ah! Ah! Oh, what can a girl say in this situation?

The club is under the direction of our two music teachers, Mr. Seidler and Mr. Pearson. Dick Gaskell has also done a fine job as president of this newly formed organization. Although this club has existed only a short time, many of the students have shown a keen interest in it.

The Varsity Club initiates a new member at one of their meetings.

The Varsity Club is made up of boys who have earned a letter in any one of the athletic sports sponsored by the school. Club members earn money by selling food at the football games, selling programs and sponsoring dances. They spent some of their money on the film used in filming games, and gave some of the money to the athletic departments for the purchase of new equipment. They also put on a hayride and fun nights.

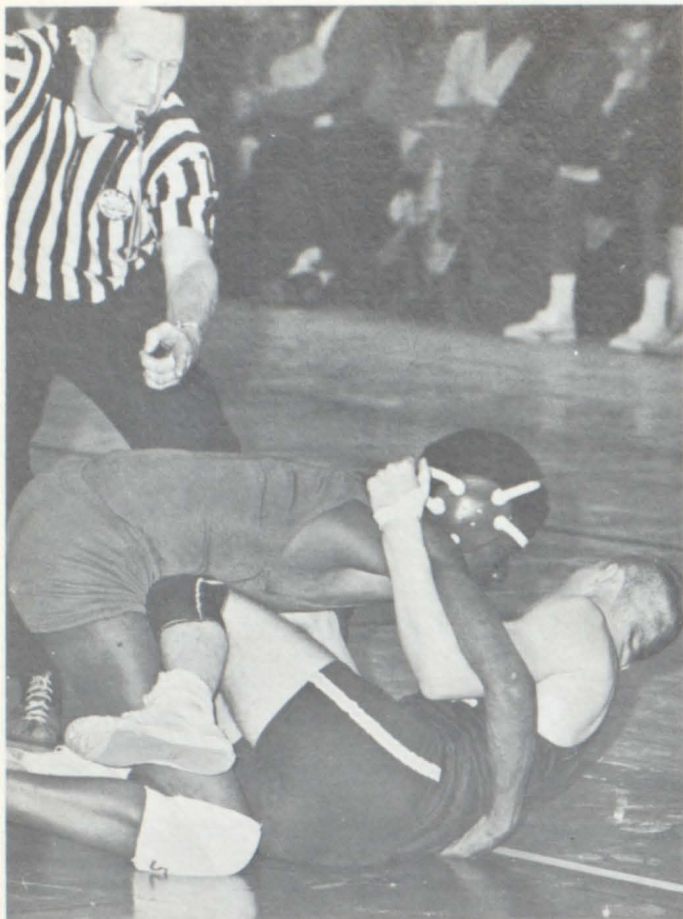

The whole school was proud of wrestlers Charles Beatty, Dan Harvey, Roy Hunter, Randy Waterman, Mike Bradley, and our coach, Mr. Waterman, after we won state championship.

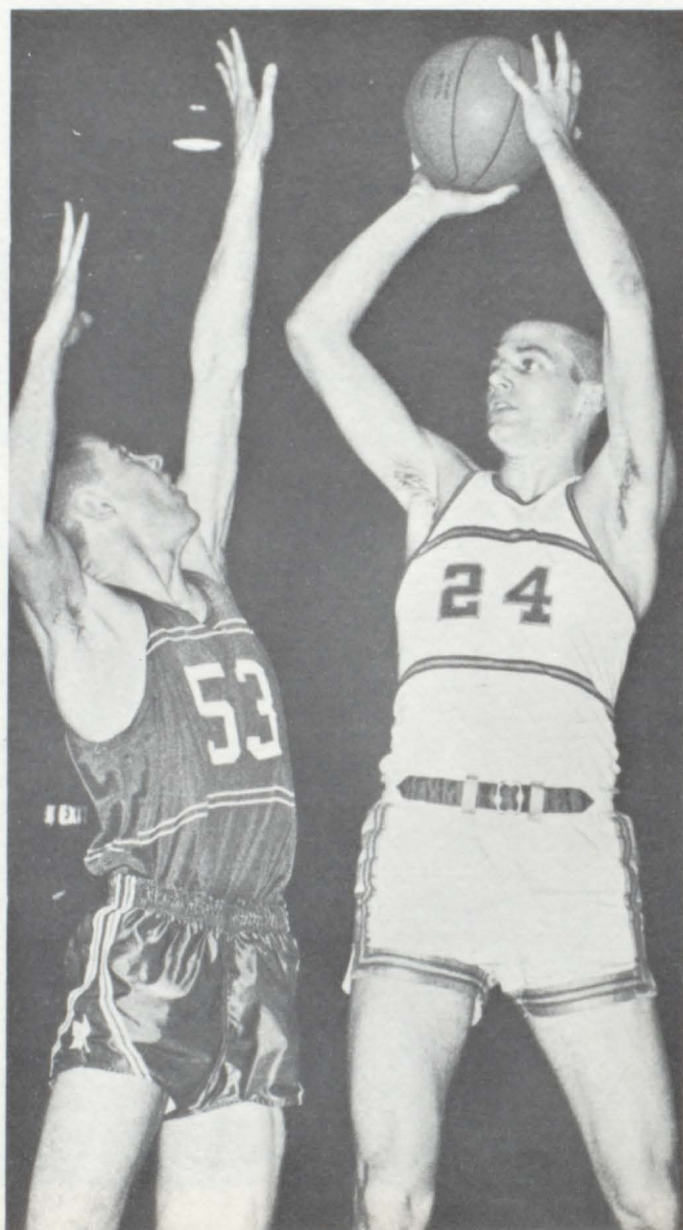

This year's varsity football players worked hard to put up a good fight.

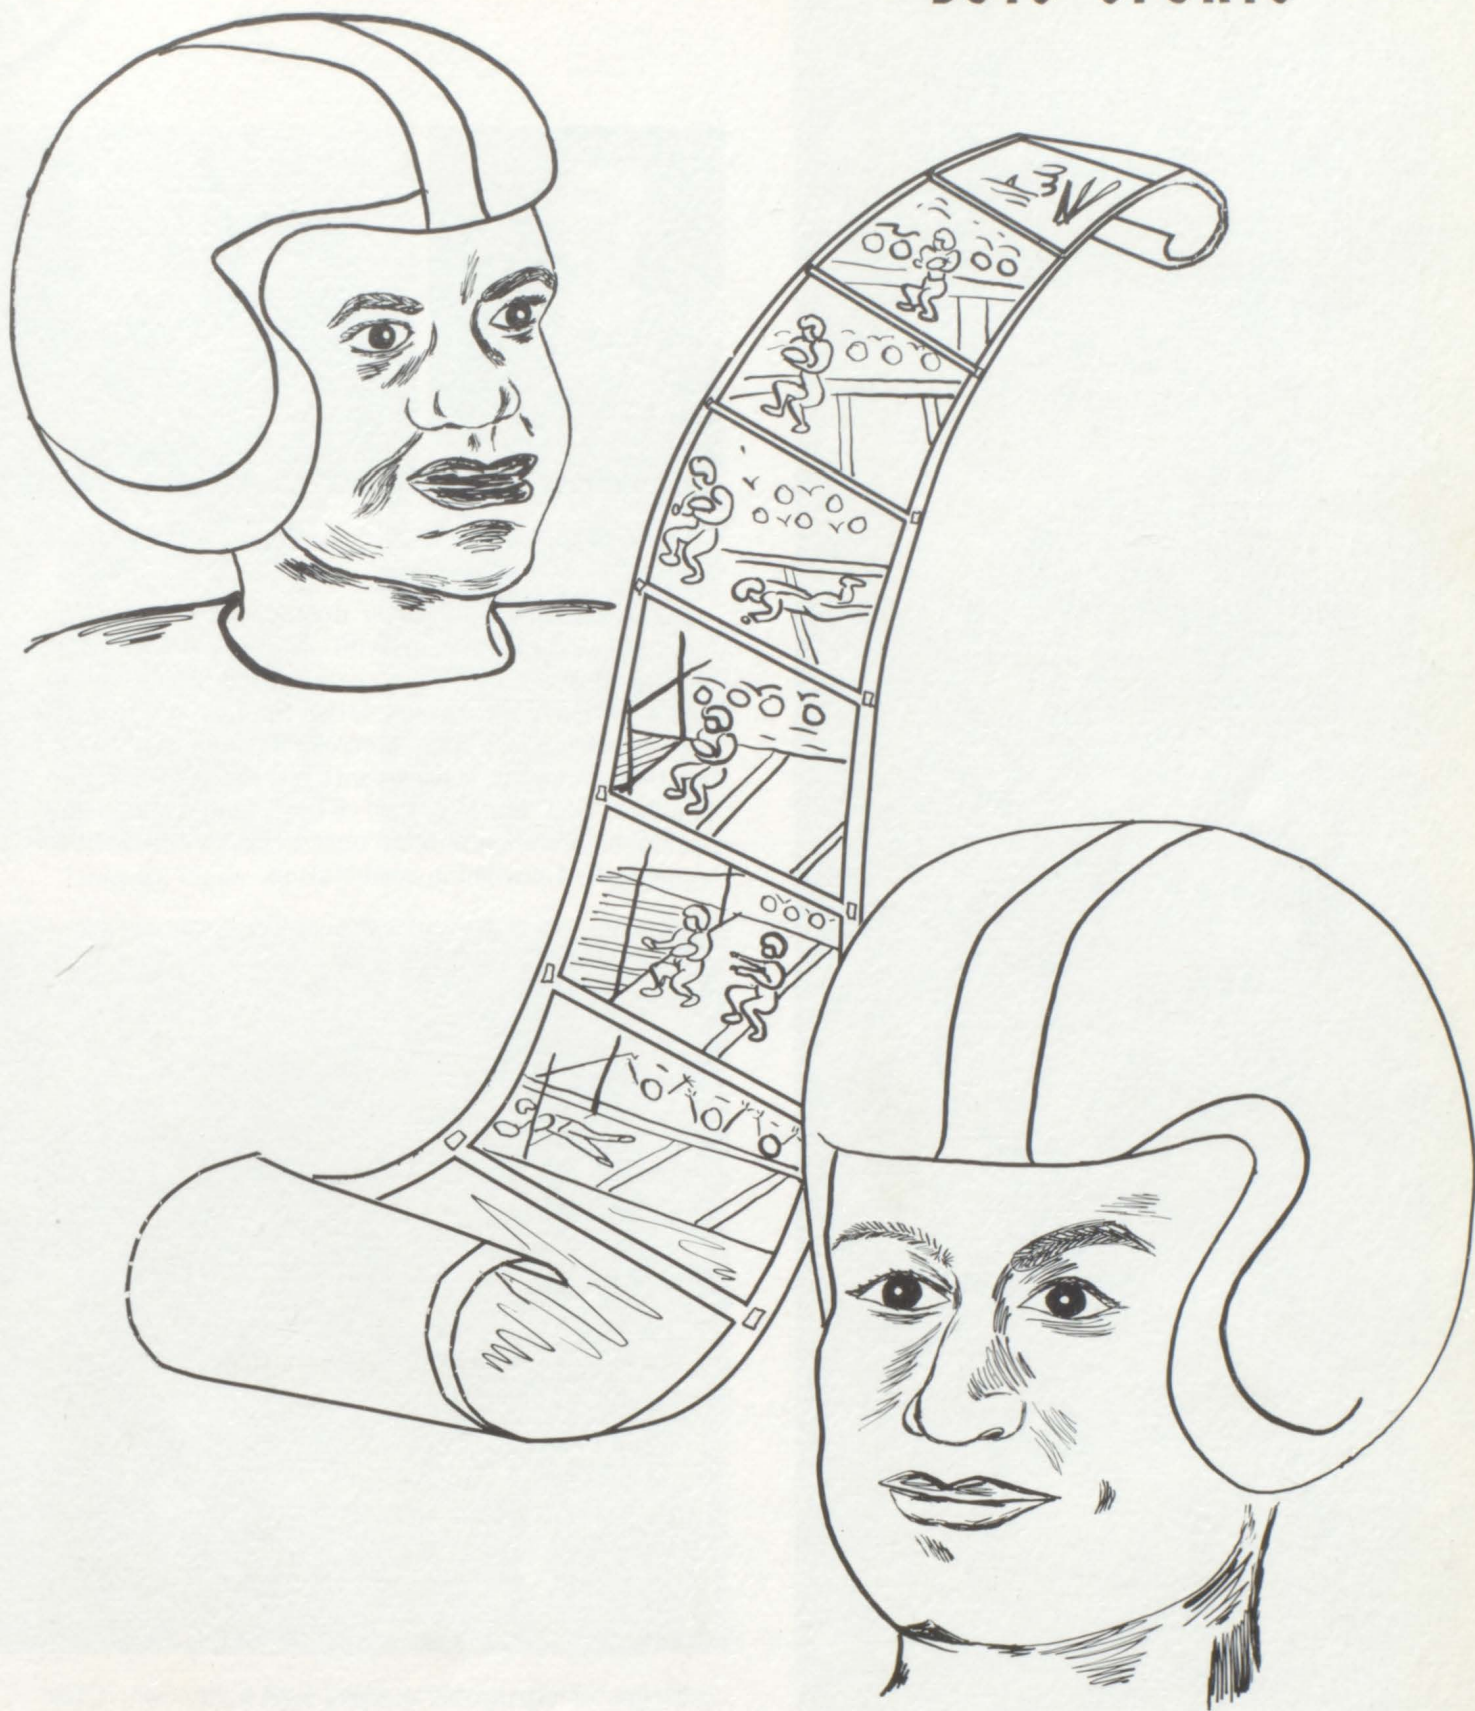

Roy Hunter heads for another victory.

Larry makes another basket which helped the team have so many victories.

Coach Thomas Siebert, Head Coach Robert Moffett, Coach Carl Elliott.

Injuries ranked the number one opponent against the football team this season, with about one-fourth of the starting line-up out of action near the end of the season. Captains Larry Brose and Mike Bradley did lead the team to one victory over Monroe; Romulus had to forfeit their victory to leave us with a 2-6 overall record. Coaches Bob Moffett, Carl Elliot, and Tom Siebert spent many long hours down on the island with the team trying to find a winning combination.

RESERVE FOOTBALL

The reserve football team had one of the most successful seasons ever. Although they only won two of their five games, everyone was a real thriller!

We are sure that with the help of these boys next year that the varsity squad should come through with an impressive season.

Coaches Tackmann and Taylor did a fine job in developing team coordination and team spirit.

CROSS-COUNTRY

The cross-country team did not have a perfect record this season, but they were able to hold their own and come out with about a fifty-fifty win-loss record.

Coach Levi Simpson, Co-Captains Charles Beatty and Terry Larson led the team through many grueling workouts.

The showings that many sophomores and juniors made this season are a good sign of a strong team in the near future.

CHAMPS

The most successful team on the Ypsi High sports front was wrestling. Coach Waterman calls it "my greatest team." It was our first perfect season - fourteen and 0 - in dual meets. This was climaxed by a come-from-behind victory in the state meet over Lansing Sexton by winning all matches on the last day of the state meet. "The greatest single day by any team ever." The team was paced by seniors Dave Arvin, Mike Bradley, Charles Beatty, Roy Hunter, and Randy Waterman. Bradley, Beatty, and junior Dan Harvey were also individual state champions.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Ypsi High's varsity basketball team slipped from first to fifth place this year, but still they displayed some great basketball. If Coach Nicholas' team would have had a little luck toward the middle of the season, they would have battled Lincoln Park down to the wire for the championship.

Ypsi High's leading scorer and rebounder, Captain Larry Brose, nearly lead his team to a surprising upset over last year's second in state entry, Adrain, in the district contest. The Braves lost this thriller 65-62 in overtime. Larry also made the all-league first team this season.

Coach Nicholas is to be congratulated for his fine work with the team.

This year the reserve team had an impressive record of nine victories and seven defeats. After dropping its opening three games, the team caught on fire, and came on to win, nine of their remaining thirteen games. During the year two boys were brought up to the varsity, and were immediately put into the starting line-up. Three more boys were moved up for the state tournaments.

Coach Siebert deserves a lot of credit for the long hours which he put in during the season.

The track team had what they call in big leagues a highly successful season. Winning all league meets and losing one non-league meet to Ann Arbor by one point.

The team captured many trophies this season including the regional championship. The season saw many individual varsity records fall.

The team was led by Co-Captains Disbrow and Patterson. They were coached by Mr. Simpson and Mr. Buckley.

RESERVE CHEERLEADERS

The reserve cheerleading squad has really put pep into our reserve teams this year. Under the direction of Miss Karen Lemunyon, the girls spurred the teams to plenty of victories. Always yelling "Victory..... Victory.....that's our cry..... V..I..C..T..O..R..Y..!"

Kathie, you'd better hurry or you'll be late.

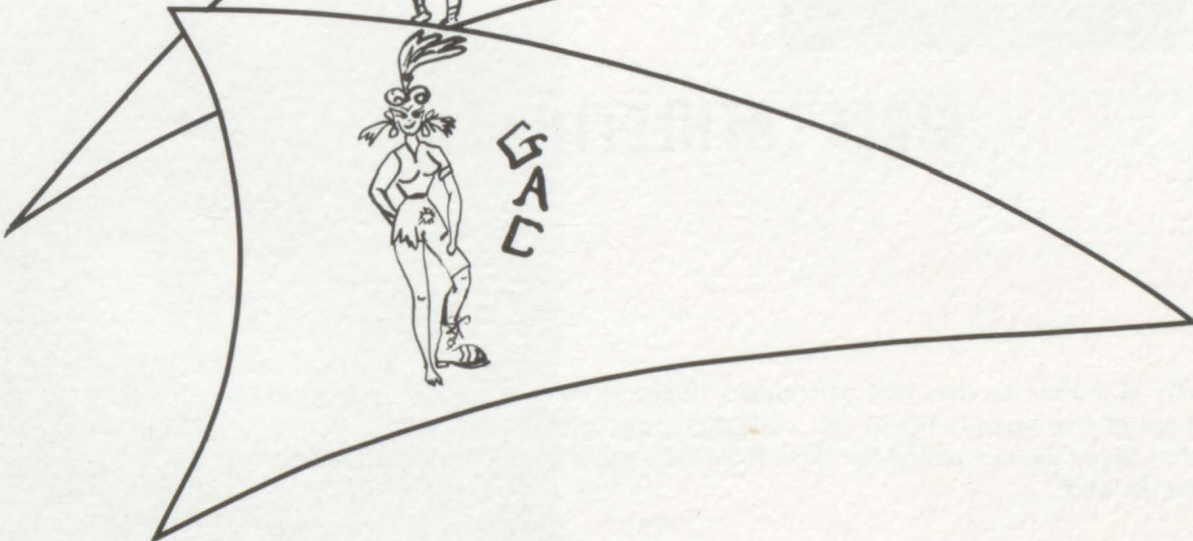

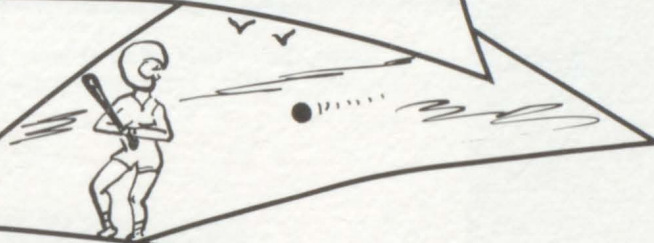

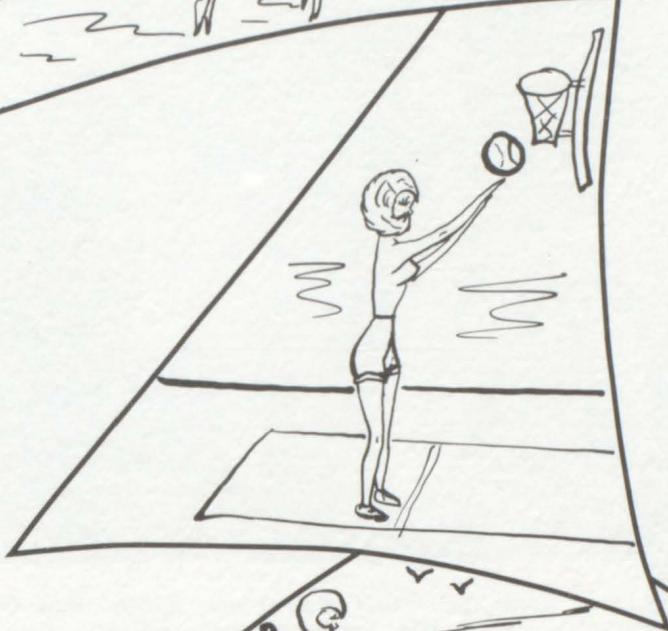

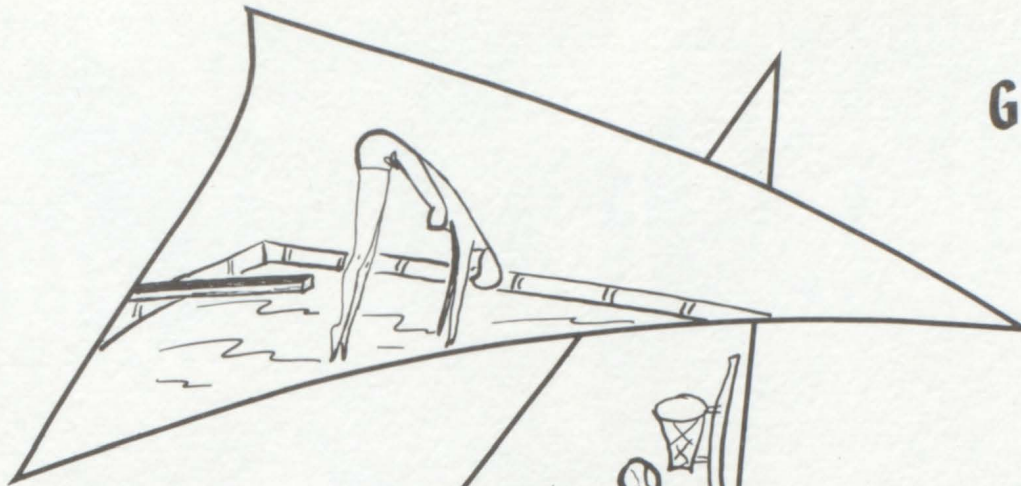

Well, at least we did our best!

GIRLS' ATHLETIC CLUB

G.A.C. is a club for girls who participate in sports of their choice. The girls must take part in three out of five sports. These are: volleyball, basketball, swimming, badminton, and baseball. After they have completed the three required number of sports they choose, they are initiated into the club.

Seniors always try to take the show.

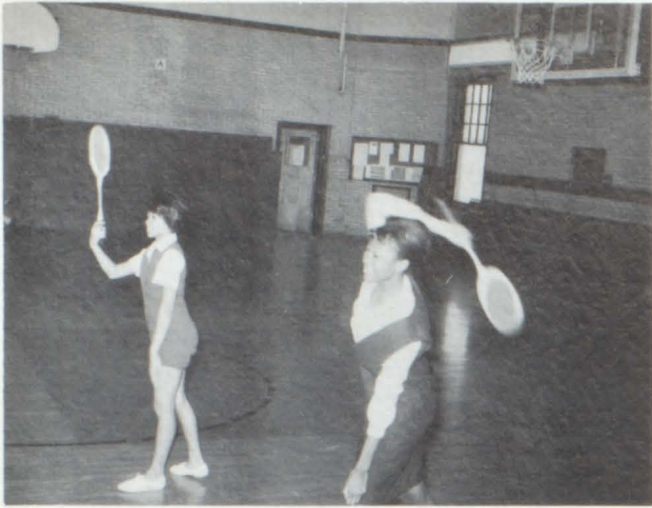

Florence Williams is giving senior Patt Horne a hard time.

The basketball teams work so hard at practice, they hardly have time to talk.

Sylvia Vick and Patt Horne show how a game can be won.

Seniors have the ball and the ball is hot.

GET THAT REBOUND!

With Janice Bates serving who could lose.

A'CAPPELLA CHOIR

This year the A'Cappella Choir was under the direction of Earl Pearson. With his leadership, the choir performed with its' usual outstanding ability.

Among the activities of the choir members was the annual Christmas Assembly put on jointly with the YHS Band. At this time they also caroled the students of YHS. To help pay for their purple and gold robes, the members of the choir held a bake sale with which they were quite successful. To add excitement to their calendar, they sponsored a Hootnanny. It turned out to be a smashing success and we all hope that they will put on another Hootnanny next year for us. A Spring Concert which was given was most impressive. To end the year the choir sang at Baccalaureate Service.

The whole year was a rewarding experience for the members of the YHS A'Cappella Choir. They are all to be congratulated for their fine work.

BAND

"Outside" had a familiar ring to the ears of this year's marching band members. Rain or shine they hustled down to the "Dust Bowl" to rehearse enthusiastically to make the many exciting events of this season possible. Among the events were the usual remarkable halftime and pre-game shows, including the spectacular Detroit Lions' halftime show. Last, but obviously not least, the marching band ended the season with the thrilling Hudson's Christmas parade. The band put much work into their rewarding performances.

The Christmas Assembly, done with the Vocal Department, started off the concert season. On top of the traditional Band-O-Rama, a winter concert was added to the band's calendar. On March 8, the YHS band participated in the District Band Festival in Livonia. This was their first time competing in the AA class and they did extremely well. As a reward for a year of hard work, the annual Military Ball, with the theme "Evening in Paris," was given for the band members.

GIRLS' DRUM AND BUGLE CORPS

The girls in this year's Drum and Bugle Corps showed again how good they were. They added a colorful touch to the halftime and pre-game shows at our football games. They represented our school for the second time at the Detroit Lion's game; and they participated in the Ann Arbor Christmas parade, and our area parades. Their most exciting trip was to Holland, Michigan, for the Annual Tulip Festival.

The juniors held the sixth annual Senior Banquet. For the entertainment the underclassmen judged the seniors misdeeds.
